Makhraj of 29 Letters

مَخَارِجُ الْحُرُوفِ

Place of articulation — detailed guide for proper pronunciation

What is Makhraj? Makhraj is the place where a letter comes from when we pronounce it. Some come from lips, some from the tongue, some from the throat, etc. Knowing makhraj makes our recitation more beautiful!

There are 5 main makhraj areas:

Area 1: Oral Cavity (ا ي)

Alif (ا) — Air comes out from the mouth cavity without any obstruction. Try opening your mouth and say "Aaa..." — that's Alif!

Ya (ي) — Sound from the middle of the tongue flowing to the palate, then out through the mouth.

Area 2: Throat (ا ء ح غ خ هـ)

Deepest (bottom of throat):

ا (Hamzah — a sudden stop of breath, like a "click" in the throat)

هـ (Ha — like breath coming out of the throat)

Middle:

ع (Ain — sound from the middle throat, like gentle straining)

ح (Ha small — a soft whisper from the throat)

Upper throat:

غ (Ghoin — vibration deep in the throat, like gargling)

خ (Kho — rough sound from deep throat, like clearing your throat)

Area 3: Tongue — section by section

Back of tongue to palate:

ق (Qof) — back of tongue furthest back, heavy sound

ك (Kaf) — slightly forward from Qof, lighter sound

Middle tongue to palate:

ج (Jim) · ش (Syin) · ي (Ya)

Side of tongue:

ل (Lam) — left/right side of tongue to palate

Tongue tip to upper gum (front):

د · ت · ط · ر · ن

س · ز · ظ · ذ · ث · ض · ص

Tip: Close your eyes and feel — try reading the letter while feeling where your tongue touches! The more you practice, the better you'll memorize

Lips, nose, and summary table

Area 4: Lips (ف ب م و)

Lower lip + upper teeth:

ف (Fa) — upper teeth touch the inner lower lip, like "F" sound

Both lips:

ب (Ba) — both lips pressed tightly then opened with force

م (Mim) — lips pressed together, sound comes through the nose (nasal)

و (Waw) — lips rounded like you're about to whistle

Area 5: Nasal Cavity — Ghunnah (م ن)

Ghunnah is a humming sound that comes from the nose. It occurs with:

م (Mim) — when with tasydid مّ or as a silent mim

ن (Nun) — when with tasydid نّ or as a silent nun

Try this: Pinch your nose and say "مّ". The sound gets blocked! That means Ghunnah comes through the nose

Sukun (◌ْ)

السُّكُونُ

A mark indicating the letter has no vowel — called a silent/dead letter

What is Sukun? Sukun (◌ْ) is a mark that shows the letter has no vowel — it's a silent letter. Unlike Fathah (a), Kasrah (i), or Dammah (u) — a letter with Sukun is pronounced without any vowel sound.

بْ

Ba Sukun → sounds like "B" (not "ba")

بْ

Ba Sukun

Sound: B
(no vowel)

تْ

Ta Sukun

Sound: T
(no vowel)

تْ

Tsa Sukun

Sound: TS
(no vowel)

Example from the Qurān: الْمَوْتُ (al-mautu)

- مْ = Mim sukun → read as "m" (not "ma")
- تْ = Ta sukun → read as "t" (not "ta")

Table of 29 Letters with Sukun

8	ذْ	DZ	18	عْ	A	28	يْ	Y
9	رْ	R	19	غْ	GH	29	ءْ	A

Sukun = silent letter = read without vowel a/i/u. Just the letter itself!

Tasydid (ّ)

الشَّدَّةُ / التَّشْدِيدُ

A mark that shows the letter is read double (doubled) or emphasized

What is Tasydid? Tasydid (ّ) is a mark showing the letter must be read doubled or emphasized. Simply put, a letter with tasydid is like the letter is written twice: the first is silent (sukun), the second has a vowel (harakat). Formula: Tasydid Letter = Sukun Letter + Same Letter with Vowel.

بّ

Ba Tasydid → read as "BBA" (doubled)

بّ

Ba Tasydid

Sound: BBA
(= بَ + بُ)

رّبّ

Robbi

Example: رَبّ
(not robi)

مّدّ

Madda

Example: مَدّد
(not mada)

Examples from the Quran:

- رَبّ read as rabbi (not rabi) — double ba!
- مَدّد read as madda (not mada) — double dal!
- إِيَّاكَ read as iiyaka (not iyaka)

Examples from the Quran

Surah Al-Ikhlās (QS 112)

قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ • اللَّهُ الصَّمَدُ • لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُولَدْ • وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ كُفُوًا أَحَدٌ

Qolqolah: قُلْ (Qof sukun) • يَلِدْ (Dal sukun) — bounce! Try "Qul-Q", "yali-D"

Surah Al-Lahab / Al-Masad (QS 111)

تَبَّتْ يَدَا أَبِي لَهَبٍ وَتَبَّ • مَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُ مَالُهُ وَمَا كَسَبَ • سَيَصْلَىٰ نَارًا ذَاتَ لَهَبٍ

Qolqolah: تَبَّتْ — Ba sukun in the middle! Also أَبِي and لَهَبٍ contain Ba sukun.

Surah Al-Fatihah (QS 1)

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

Qolqolah: الْحَمْدُ — Dal (ذ) at the end of "alhamd" bounces! Practice it!

Tajweed Part 1

Rules for reading the Quran beautifully — Nun Sakinah & Tanwin

Tajweed is the science of reciting the Quran properly, as taught by Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. Let's learn the 6 basic rules! 📖

1. Idzhar Halqi

Nun sakinah/tanwin is read clearly when meeting 6 throat letters: خ غ ع ه و ع clear → مِنْ عَبْدِهِ

2. Idgham

Nun sakinah merges into the next letter. Bighunnah (ي م ن و) + nasal. Bilaghunnah (ل ر) no nasal.

merges → مَنْ يُعْمَلُ

3. Iqlab

Nun sakinah/tanwin changes into Mim when meeting ب

مِنْ بَعْدِ → مِمَّ بَعْدِ

4. Ikhfa Haqiqi

Nun sakinah read hidden/samar when meeting 15 letters: ت ث ج د ذ ز س ش ص ض ط ظ ف ق ك hidden → مِنْ تَحْتِهَا

5. Ghunnah

Nasal humming — on Mim and Nun with tasydid. ±2 beats.

in-nna (nasal) → اِنْ

6. Qolqolah

5 letters bounce when sukun: ق ط ب ج د

alham-D → اَلْحَمْدُ

Tajweed Part 2

Rules of Mad (lengthening) & more

7. Mad Thabi'i

2 beats. Alif (ا) after fathah, Ya sukun (ي) after kasrah, Waw sukun (و) after dammah.

قَالَ → قَا (2)

8. Mad Wajib Muttashil

4-5 beats. Mad meets hamzah in ONE word. MUST lengthen.

جَاءَ → جَاءَ (4)

9. Mad Jaiz Munfashil

Can be 4-5 or 2 beats. Mad meets hamzah in SEPARATE words.

يَا أَيُّهَا → يَا أَيُّهَا (2/4)

10. Mad 'Aridh

2-6 beats (usually 4). Mad meets sukun when stopping (waqaf).

الرَّحِيمِ → الرَّحِيمِ (2/4/6)

11. Mad Lazim

6 beats — MUST be 6. Mad meets original sukun that stays even without stopping.

الْحَاقَّةُ → الْحَاقَّةُ (6)

12. Idzhar Syafawi

Mim sukun read clearly when meeting any letter except م and ب (26 letters).

clear → لَهِمْ نَارٌ

Tip: Memorize tajweed step by step. Start with Mad Thabi'i (most common) and Qolqolah (easiest to spot). Slowly but surely!

اتَّبِعِ الْخَطَّ

Practice writing Quranic verses by tracing!

Let's trace the verses! The Arabic text on the following pages is printed in a light outline — trace over it slowly with a pencil or marker to practice reading, writing, and memorizing short surahs from Juz Amma.

How to use:

Follow the light Arabic text with a pencil, from right to left. Repeat several times until you remember the shape of each letter.

For parents:

Guide your child while tracing, and read each verse aloud together slowly. Practice makes perfect!
